Yesterday . . . Tomorrow . . . Today

Yesterday I had memories.
I had dreams of what I was,
Who you were,
And where I was but . . .
Yesterday is gone.

Tomorrow lies ahead filled with experiences not lived,
Hopes still not awakened,
And dreams not yet realized but . . .
Tomorrow is still distant beyond my reach.

I have memories from yesterday
And dreams of tomorrow but . . .
What do I have right now?
Right now I have today.
I have the immediate moment
To do everything I possibly am able.

Soon the immediate moment will be gone.
And slip into yesterday forever.
Tomorrow I still cannot realize for I cannot feel what I have not experienced.
But I have today;
Today to be me,
To do what I please:
To laugh or cry,
Smile or frown,
Help others or remain solitary,
Enjoy life or despise it.
I have today and that's what life is.

In Memory Of

Mrs. Inez Logan

"For we know that when this house we live in now is taken down, when we die and leave these bodies, we will have wonderful new bodies in heaven, homes that will be ours forever more, made for us by God himself and not by human hands. How weary we grow of our present bodies. That is why we look forward eagerly to the day when we shall have heavenly bodies. Now we look forward with confidence to our heavenly bodies, realizing that every moment we spend in these earthly bodies is time spent away from our eternal home in heaven with Jesus.

II Corinthians 5:1-8

We think that at one point in our lives here, we had the very special experience of knowing Mrs. Inez Logan. We came to know her friendly smile, her cheery hello and laugh. She had that special quality of saying the right encouraging words just when you needed them, always having the time to listen and giving motherly advice. She gave us encouragement when we needed it most. Through her life she gave us a special gift — the gift of enjoying life — getting involved with other people — learning to know and love them. The class of 1981 misses her greatly but we continue to treasure all the memories of the warmth and love she gave to us.

Recognition

Dear Mom, Dad and Loved Ones,

We've waited three years to write this letter and recognize you for your help in making our dream of becoming a Nurse possible.

Beginning as a freshman, we needed more than determination to continue. The never ending days at Lycoming College, the chaotic residence life and the petrifying encounter of the first clinical day — the start of our Nursing Career. Through all of these, you gave us your love, prayers and support. We realize how important you were to us and all that you did for us. When we were confused and afraid, you understood and made us understand our fears.

There were times we felt insecure and wondered whether we could ever become that "real" nurse. It seemed that as the "student" nurse, we had others doubting us, which dampened our self confidence. You reassured us that time, education and experience would give us the qualities we needed to become a professional. You renewed our hopes; allowing us to continue on.

Last, but not least, your love for us never failed. We knew that you were beside us each moment. It seemed you struggled with us through the unending trials.

At Graduation, we are proud and we know you are too. This special moment has finally arrived. We would like to thank you for everything, because without you we could not have succeeded.

Love Always,
Your Graduate Nurse

The Class of 1981
is proud to dedicate

The Oak

to Mrs. Shirley Young

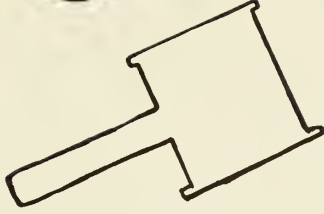

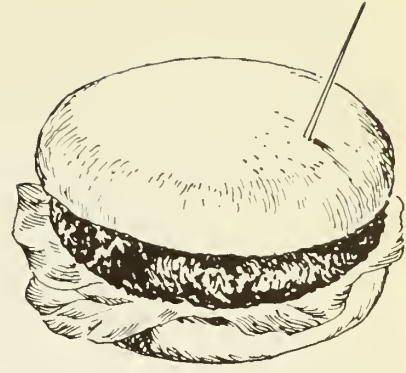

Some people know the way to make each day seem more worthwhile. They seem to catch the sunshine and wear it in their smile. They're kind and understanding, loving and sincere, ready with a compliment or friendly word of cheer. They truly take interest in everything you do. You can go to them with problems and they'll always see you through. They give with generosity that never seems to end. They know the wonderful secret of how to be a friend.

Amanda Bradley

From our first week in school we the class of 1981 came to know Mrs. Shirley Young. We shared so many experiences with her both elating and frustrating.

Mrs. Young, known as "Mom" to us all is the special kind of teacher that we learned so much from. She gave so much of herself, incorporating patience, love and understanding into her lectures and floor work. We in return gained confidence in ourselves and wanted to learn more. She became close to us not only as an instructor but as a dear friend. We want to extend our thanks to her for supporting us, having faith in our ability and helping us reach our goals.

There's so much to give in the course of a day, comfort in all of the kind words we say, cheer when we offer
a glad helping hand, warmth just by showing that we understand.
There's so much to give
just in day-to-day living,
And, there's so much joy
To be found in the giving.

One day at a time, — this is enough. Do not look back and grieve over the past, for it is gone; and do not be troubled about the future, for it has not yet come. Live in the present, and make it so beautiful that it will be worth remembering.

As we sail across the sea of life
 Each passing wave brings about a new experience.
 Sometimes they are not always pleasant experiences.
 Sometimes the wind makes those waves pretty turbulent.

But, that's the sea of life, and it's a journey we all must make.
 Each day brings about a new horizon;
 Each sunset brings about a new peace.

Often your tasks will be many
And more than you think you can do . . .
Often the road will be rugged
And the hills insurmountable, too . . .
But with Faith in your heart start upward
And climb till you reach your dream
For nothing in life that is worthy
Is ever too hard to achieve
If you have the courage
And if you have the faith to believe . . .
For faith is a force that is greater Than knowledge or power or skill
And many defeats turn to triumph
If you trust in God's wisdom and will . . .
For faith is a mover of mountains
There's nothing that God cannot do
So start out today with Faith in your heart
And "Climb Till Your Dream Comes True!"

We look out through the windowpane as showers sweep the land,
The wind blows fiercely through the trees;
the storm now has command.
We understand, (it's nature's way);
And know it soon will pass,
And flowers will bloom because of this;
And greener grow the grass.

So when there comes to us dark clouds,
As trials, grief or pain,
We well may know, as in the past;
The sun will shine again.
Although the storms are hard to bear,
We'll praise God as we should,
And trust his promise when He said:
"All things will work for good!"

You give but little when you give of your possessions.

It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.

It is well to give when asked, but it is better to give unasked, through understanding,

And to the open-handed the search for one who shall receive is joy greater than giving.

All you have shall some day be given.

Therefore give now, that the season of giving may be yours and not your inheritors.

The valleys are behind us, with mountains yet to climb . . .
 Our hopes and fears before us, a destiny in time . . .
 The friendships made along the way, within our hearts will last . . .
 The smiles, tears, and faces, forever in our past . . .
 The memories will linger,
 for each their separate way . . .
 To take and to remember,
 to tell someother day . . .
 What lies behind and what lies ahead

 With what means most within each heart, our feelings that we share.

Don't ever be discouraged
Or think your goal is blocked,
For every closed door that you meet has got to have a lock.
Don't say, "I just can't do it,"
or feel it can't be done,
For a battle must first be fought
Before it can be won.
Don't be depressed or saddened,
or feel there is no need;
For there can be no harvest unless you plant the seed.
Think good and good will follow,
your life's goal you will win,
If your trust in yourself and in your dreams and have Faith in the power within.

We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they are good for us — they help us learn to be patient. And patience develops strength of character in us and helps us trust God more each time we use it until finally our hope and faith are strong and steady. Then, when that happens, we are able to hold our heads high no matter what happens and know that all is well for we know how dearly God loves us, and we feel this warm love everywhere within us because God has given the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his Love.

If you think you are beaten, you are;
 If you think you dare not,
 you don't.
 If you'd like to win, but think you can't,
 It's almost a cinch you won't.
 If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
 For out in the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will;
 It's all in the state of mind.
 Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or faster man;
 But sooner or later the man who wins is the man who thinks he can.

Remember when . . .

Remember when S.B. had to check her closets every night:
She would never know who was going to jump out at her next.

Remember when: we played Fat Man in the Bathtub on our peers in Bio. class.

Remember when D.S., P.B., R.W. & C.K. experienced a very "wet & hazy" weekend at the SNAP convention in Pittsburg.(1978)

Remember when C.H. undressed in front of the whole of Rehab one night, Dr. Lehman included.

Remember when a senior student nurse got an eight year old to sign his own operation permit.

Remember when the rooms got powdered.

Remember when J.B., D.S., & D.R. did the "pelvic thrusts" to macho man.

Remember when . . . Deb C. cleaned her room . . . once.

Remember when D. Duds was working in the ER and asked Dr.
Coffman if she could help him because he looked lost!

Remember when C.B. did CPR for 1 ½ hours . . . to a stuffed bear!

Remember when Connie brought M&M's each Sunday and her & Chris would hoard off people so they wouldn't eat them.

Remember when "We" took a night course in anatomy.

Remember when June '81 seemed so far away & there seemed to be plenty of time to get everything done.

Remember when Security came to see what was burning, and they were told we threw burnt popcorn down the elevator shaft.

Remember when Irene gave Kim a hematoma in CCU.

Remember when Joyce would scream "I don't like it here" and we'd yell back "we don't either."

Remember when we ate popcorn every night.

Remember when Kim called home every night.

Remember when we would burn the midnight oil till 2-3a.m. in our freshman year and then turn in at 10p.m. our senior year.

Remember when L.W. gave S.R. a thermometer to stir her hot cocoa, it broke and she ingested mercury. We then fed her Ipecac.

Remember when I.T. tried to make popcorn with dish detergent.

Remember when D.R. chased D.S. to the residence after finishing off some B.V.

Remember when Donna-Duds slept all night without knowing she had little "rubber friends" sleeping with her!!

Remember when Candace ran down the bowling lane and the ball went the other way.

Remember when C.V. thought she was alone on the floor, wondered down the hall wearing practically nothing and met a maintenance man.

Remember when Chris drove Joyce's car to the residence after the end-of-the-year party.

Remember when Jean was positive Audrey was her spiriter but really it was her roommate.

Remember when B.L. told Dave R. and Chris V. her stethoscope was broken because she couldn't hear anything.

Remember when Irene followed R. Lehman to the bathroom.

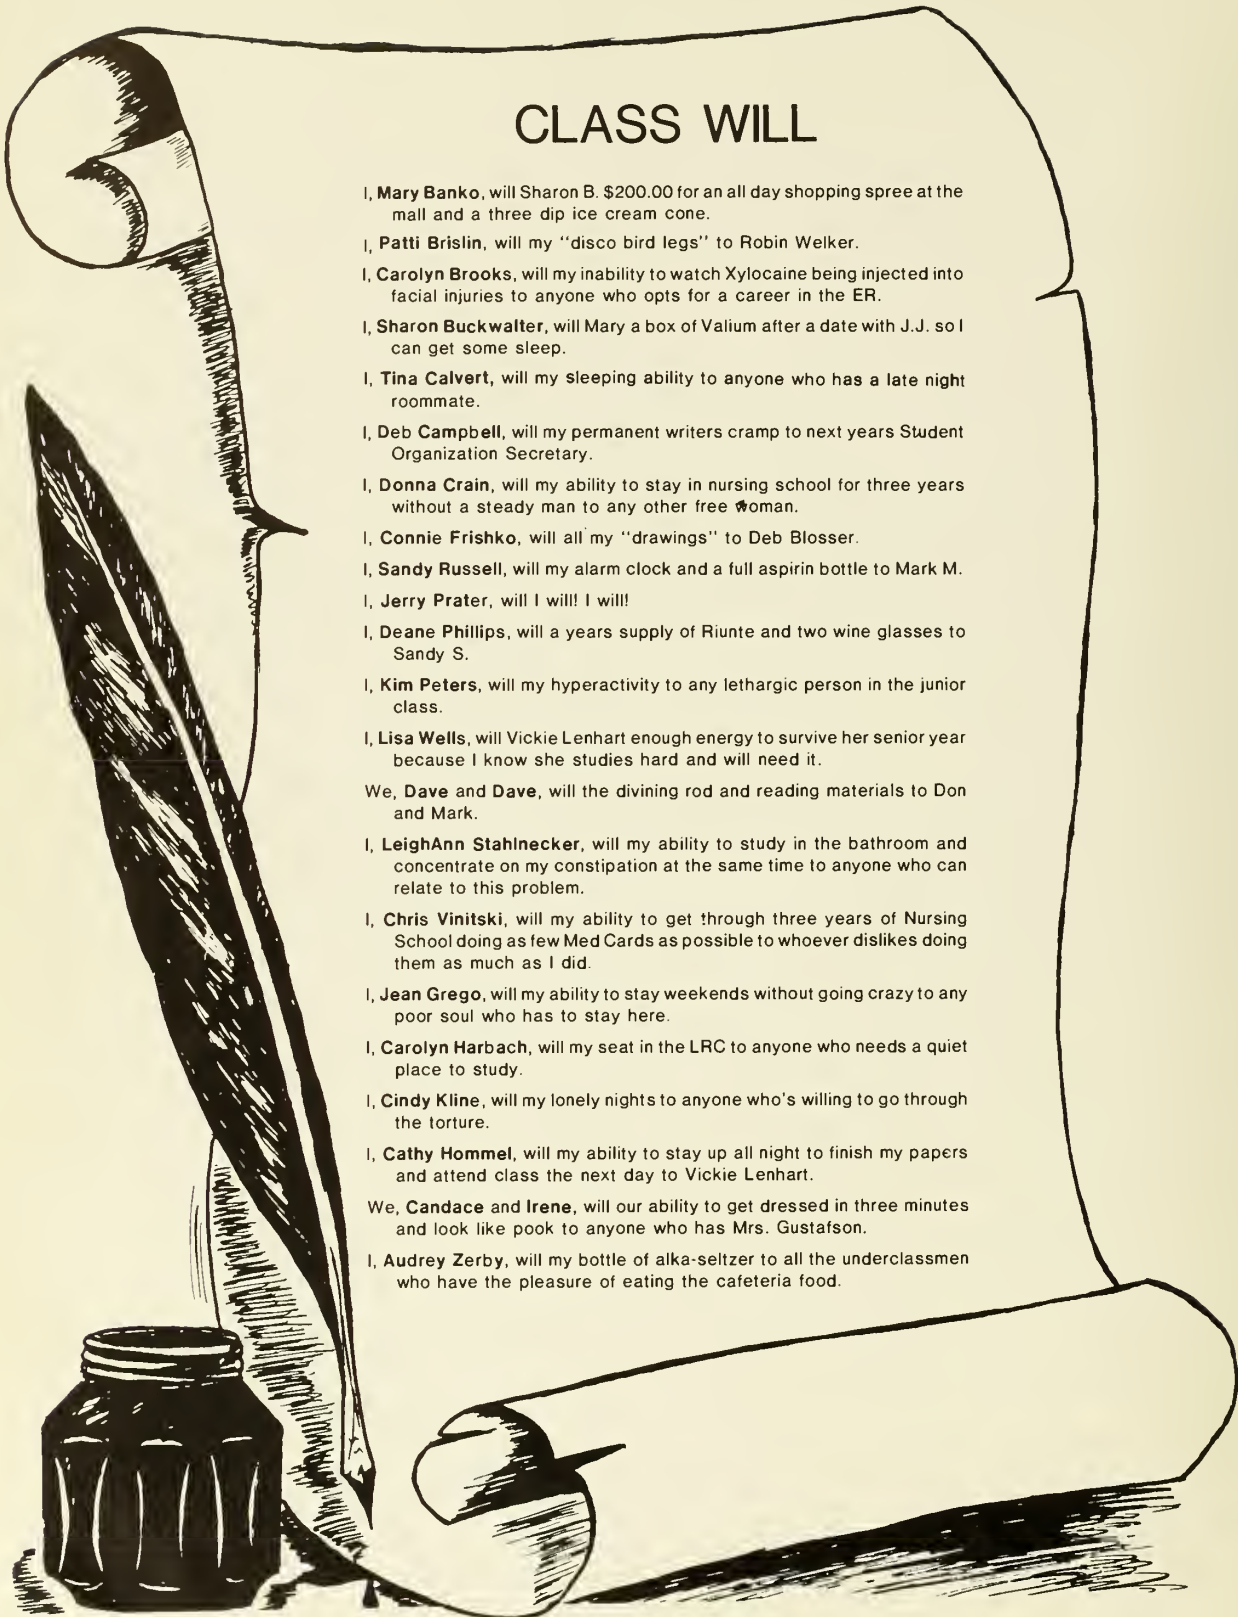

Remember when Kim, LeighAnn, & Audrey performed surgery on Jean's leg!

Remember the Rehab days.

Remember when Cindy & Deb decided to decorate Candace & Irene's door with shaving cream & rearrange their room.

Remember when 2nd floor got flooded for some unknown reason.

Remember when C.B. experimented with nail polish remover and an open flame.
